BURTEN, BELL, CARR DEVELOPMENT, INC. CELEBRATES 20 YEARS OF REVITALIZING CLEVELAND NEIGHBORHOODS WITH
"A NIGHT WITH THE STARS"

March 1, 2011 Cleveland – Burten, Bell, Carr Development, Inc (BBC) is proud to celebrate its 20th anniversary with "A Night with the Stars" Fashion Show hosted by FOX-8's Kenny Crumpton on Saturday, April 2, 2011 beginning at 7 p.m. at Embassy Suites (1701 E. 12th Street, Cleveland).

Local models and celebrities including WKYC's Andrea Vecchio, WEWS' Jason Nicholas and Q104's Tim Richards will walk the catwalk featuring local clothing designers including Stephanie Nunn, Tierra Mari, Vaughn Glover, and Lucky. The evening kicks off with a social hour followed by a special performance by the Cleveland School of the Arts, Lower Campus, and a BBC progress update on Central and Kinsman neighborhoods. After these inspirational presentations, guests will enjoy an after party with dancing and music by DJ Kynce. Corporate tickets are available for $150.00 and Non-Profit for $75.00.

Timothy Tramble, Executive Director, of Burten, Bell, Carr Development, Inc. is excited to honor BBC's 20th anniversary. "Our fingerprint has left positive impressions throughout Ward 5, leaving most clueless that these are, in fact, the poorest neighborhoods of Cleveland," said Tramble. "We look forward to the well anticipated celebration of our many accomplishments as we bring greater awareness to the ongoing transformation of our communities."

Burten, Bell, Carr Development, Inc. is a non-profit community development corporation created in 1990 to perform neighborhood planning and community revitalization activities in Cleveland's Central, Garden Valley, and Kinsman-Union neighborhoods.

The mission of Burten, Bell, Carr Development, Inc. is to enhance the quality of life for residents of the Central, Garden Valley, and Kinsman neighborhoods of Cleveland by initiating and cultivating housing, retail, employment, and recreation opportunities through effective partnerships with residents, community groups, government, corporations and institutions.
